

flutter

ISSUE NO. 17 | 2018

A PROVENCAL DINNER PARTY AWAITS

In the Clos Saint Estève Grand Salon, Stephanie Fayolle and Céline Jean, of Wep in Provence, worked with Joy to create the table's organic runner with flowering white arrangements in a mix of woven and ceramic vessels, French-gray tapers, and woven stone votives. Place settings were layered with woven chargers from Theoni, Provençal ceramic dishes from Carron, and linen napkins with custom place card ties by Crème de Papier.

For a laid-back, yet absolutely charming, welcome dinner at the farmhouse we had Brunet Frites gourmet burger truck stop by. Guests enjoyed ordering custom burgers accompanied with a quinoa salad and french fries, of course!

An Evening at La Bastide de Gordes

A GASTRONOMIC GARDEN PARTY

Our airy organic tablescape was covered in a striped, French-gray linen and lined with sage green candles and fresh potted herbs in assorted basket, stone, and ceramic vessels. Crème de Papier designed a minimalist vellum menu that was accented with a fragrant sprig of lavender.

The L'orangerie at La Bastide de Gordes